

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 111
By Caldwell

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Oak Ridge High School swimmer Jennifer Cristy on setting three state records.

WHEREAS, the Tennessee General Assembly is pleased to specially recognize exceptionally talented athletes who work hard and perform at a level never before attained; and

WHEREAS, at the state high school championships, Oak Ridge High School swimming sensation Jennifer Cristy, put on a dazzling performance by breaking three state records despite strong competition; and

WHEREAS, Cristy broke her own mark in the 50-meter Freestyle with a time of 23.12 seconds, having set the previous standard of 23.62 seconds at the same meet last year; and

WHEREAS, the record she shattered in the 100-meter Backstroke, 56.94 seconds, erased a record that had endured for 19 years; and

WHEREAS, Cristy also set a new mark in the first leg of the 400-meter Free relay with an excellent time of 50.58 seconds; and

WHEREAS, each of these record-setting times was also an All-America qualifying time; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer Cristy is a popular and highly regarded senior at Oak Ridge High School; and

WHEREAS, she is the daughter of proud parents Steve and Lou Ann Cristy; and
